

City of Hyattsville Traffic Calming Devices Study

This study consisted of collecting traffic data through the City along nine major streets to determine traffic volumes, origin-destination patterns, travel speeds, etc. Alternative traffic engineering solutions were developed for each street, including the advantages and disadvantages for each solution. Public meetings were held to discuss and present alternatives for implementation. Plans were developed and implemented on several roadways.

