

Fair View Mall Parking Study City of Fairfax, Virginia

This project consisted of an inventory of existing parking supply including the existing parking layout at the shopping center. Parking needed by code for the existing tenants was determined. A new efficient parking layout was proposed to increase parking supply. The parking needed exceeded parking supply at full occupancy of the center. A shared parking plan was proposed to meet the parking shortfall along with a parking layout plan for an adjacent parcel.

