Traffic Data Collection for
Maryland State Highway Administration

MCV collected traffic data for Maryland including the Washington Metropolitan area. The traffic count program included turning movement counts, vehicle classification counts, lane occupancy counts, vehicle occupancy counts, license plate survey, queue length measurement, origin-destination survey, travel time/speed and delay measurements, transit ridership counts, traffic control observance counts, occupant protection use counts, etc. Data collected is being provided in hard copy format and in electronic format.

MCV
ASSOCIATES, INC
Planning . Engineering . Information Technology